

Natural Products Research premium fertilizers are formulated to supplement the natural food supply in the soil. Each product formulation is broadly focused on not only present nutrient requirements but future requirements as well.

Natural Products Research fertilizers are a whole new way to grow, blending essential trace elements with vital nutrients for beneficial microorganisms, and six slow release organic nitrogens, to meet the precise requirements of plant and soil life. Every product is a homogenous mixture to ensure uniform color, quality and nutrition.

- Excellent nutrient blend for all types of turf grass on a range of soils and seasons.
- Provides essential macro and micro nutrients in complex form for easy plant uptake.
- Excellent resistance to high traffic areas.
- Outstanding performance for greens and tees where wear resistance, thick growth and plant stiffness are necessary.
- 100% organic Phosphorus. Potassium from organic and natural sources.
- Manufactured with animal feed grade materials for increased safety. Contains no manures. Staff, Players of all ages and wildlife can walk and play immediately after application.
- Slow growth formulas from 6 natural organic sources.
- Excellent color, quality and root mass.
- Thickens cell walls and develops dense root systems which helps reduce water applications.
- High potassium helps all grasses tolerate the extremes of heat, cold and drought.

8-8-8 offers equal proportions of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium fertilizer for greens and tees providing 60% WIN with 6 natural organic slow release nitrogens. It provides a firm playing surface and the best drought and wear tolerance.